

Charter of the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors

I. Purpose

The Finance Committee shall provide assistance to the Board of Directors of the Company in fulfilling its responsibility to the shareholders in respect of the policies, practices, and strategies that relate to the management of the financial affairs of the Company. The Finance Committee also shall perform such other functions and exercise such other powers as may be delegated to it from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Finance Committee's primary purpose is to:

- Review management's plans to manage the Company's exposure to financial risk.
- Review the Company's cash plan, balance sheet, and capital structure.
- Review the Company's capital allocation strategy, including the cost of capital.
- Recommend dividend actions to the Board of Directors.
- Review the Company's pension strategy and performance and health care costs and funding.

II. Structure and Operations

Composition and Qualifications

The Finance Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors as determined by the Board (upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee), each of whom shall be determined by the Board of Directors to possess financial acumen. All members of the Finance Committee shall have a working familiarity with basic finance practices, and at least one member of the Finance Committee shall have financial management expertise.

Appointment and Removal

The members of the Finance Committee shall be designated by the Board annually and shall serve until their successors shall be duly designated or until such member's earlier resignation or removal. Any member of the Finance Committee may be removed from the Committee, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Board. Unless a Chair is designated by the full Board, the members of the Finance Committee shall designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Finance Committee membership. The Chair will chair all regular sessions of the Finance Committee and set agendas for Finance Committee meetings.

Delegation to Subcommittees

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Finance Committee shall be entitled to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Finance Committee and, to the extent not expressly reserved to the Finance Committee by the Board or by applicable law, rule or regulation, to any other committee of 2 directors of the Company appointed by it, which may or may not be composed of members of the Finance Committee.

III. Meetings

The Finance Committee shall ordinarily meet at least four times annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. Any director of the Company who is not a member of the Finance Committee may attend meetings of the Finance Committee; provided, however, that any director who is not a member of the Finance Committee may not vote on any matter coming before the Finance Committee for a vote. The Finance Committee also may invite to its meetings any member of management of the Company and such other persons as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Finance Committee may meet in executive session, as the Finance Committee deems necessary or appropriate.

IV. Responsibilities and Duties

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties, the Finance Committee shall:
